Enjoy the natural beauty of the seasons in Japan. In step with the changing mood, enjoy seasonal events and festivals.

Spring

Cherry Blossom Viewing Spots
Nagoya Castle is the renowned main viewing spot of Nagoya, with nearly 3,000 trees blooming in the spring. The cherry blossom viewing spot of Nagoya is set at Nagoya Castle, where cherry blossoms bloom with the beginning of the spring. Additionally, Nagoya Castle is the setting of the famous cherry blossom viewing event, the Nagoya Castle Cherry Blossom Viewing Spot.

Nagoya through the seasons

Summer

World Cosplay Summit
Japanese manga, movies, and games are popular worldwide. Every year, cosplayers and fans from all over the world come to Nagoya to participate in the world's largest and most popular anime event. The event is held in July at the Nagoya City Gymnasium, where cosplayers gather to show off their costumes and participate in competitions.

Autumn

Nabana no Sato
This park has one of the largest illumination events in all of Japan, which has become a high point of the autumn season in the Nagoya area. The “Lumine” is a mixture of colored lights and music, which are displayed in the park.

Winter

Atsuta Jingu Shrine
Atsuta Jingu Shrine is the second largest Shinto shrine in all of Japan after Ise Jingu Shrine and about 7 million people visit here annually. It is especially crowded on New Year's Day when many people come to pray.

Nagoya is convenient as an entryway to sightseeing in the Chubu Region. Your exciting journey starts here!
Sightseeing

Nagoya, the largest city in Central Japan, is rich in culture and history. You can also shop for global brands and enjoy various gourmet foods.

The Tokugawa Art Museum / Tokugawaen
This museum houses a collection of more than 10,000 daimyo dolls. Items furniture and equipment used by the Feudal Lord that has been inherited by the Owari Tokugawa family and mainly consists of the personal effects of Tokugawa, also has a "The Tale of Genji" Picture Scroll, a national treasure. In Tokugawaen, you can enjoy the many blooming flowers in the Japanese Garden, built in a traditional style with a pond and walking paths.

Nagoya Castle
Nagoya Castle is located in the heart of the city and is one of the most impressive castles in Japan. It is surrounded by moats and has beautiful gardens and buildings that reflect the traditional Japanese style. The castle is open to the public and offers stunning views of the city.

Toyota Commemorative Museum of Industry and Technology
This museum is dedicated to the history of Toyota. It houses a collection of Toyota vehicles, engines, and other related items. The museum is located in Toyota, Aichi Prefecture, and is open to the public.

Scamaglev and Railway Park
This park introduces the world of trains and railway technology through interactive exhibits and real trains. It is located in the city of Scamaglev, Aichi Prefecture.

Toyota City Science Museum
Based on the concept of "look, touch, and learn," this comprehensive science museum allows children and adults to enjoy getting to know science through various exhibits and experiences. The museum also includes an IMAX theater, a planetarium, and a library.

Nagoya Station
This is the main train station of Nagoya City and is a hub for transportation. It is located in the city center and is easily accessible from other parts of Nagoya.

Local dishes

Himitsukabushi
This dish is a popular local specialty in Nagoya. It consists of thin strips of meat and vegetables served with a special sauce and grilled to perfection. It is a must-try dish when visiting Nagoya.

Miso-katsu
This local dish is a type of cutlet that is made using pork, beef, or chicken. It is coated with a mixture of miso and bread crumbs and grilled to a golden brown. It is served with a sweet miso-based sauce and is a popular dish among locals.

Nagoya-style Breakfasts
Nagoya coffee shops are said to have originated the "breakfast concept," serving free hot water, bread, and pastries. Some shops also offer a variety of miso options, such as miso soup and miso sandwiches.

Kishimen
Nagoya's kishimen noodles have a distinctive flat, thin shape. They are traditionally served in a light broth topped with fish cakes, boiled spinach, and fried tofu.

Shopping

Osu Shopping District
This shopping district is one of the most popular shopping areas in Nagoya. It offers a wide variety of shops, restaurants, and coffee shops. Visitors can find everything from traditional Japanese goods to modern fashion and electronics.

Nagashima Resort
Nagashima Resort is a popular destination for families visiting Nagoya. It features an amusement park, a natural hot spring, a shopping mall, and a theme park. This resort offers a variety of attractions, including roller coasters, water slides, and a water park.

Sakae
Sakae is the heart of the Nagoya business district, bustling with people walking to and from work. It is home to many restaurants, shops, and entertainment venues. Visitors can enjoy a variety of local specialties, including korokke (deep-fried croquettes), okonomiyaki (Japanese savory pancakes), and other traditional Japanese dishes.