

Service routes & Public transportation

You can use a Me-guru One-Day pass to take the C-758 City Center Loop
Bus on days when the Me-guru Nagoya Sightseeing Route Bus is in service

MAP

Legend

なごや観光ルートバス
NAGOYA SIGHTSEEING ROUTE BUS
メーグル

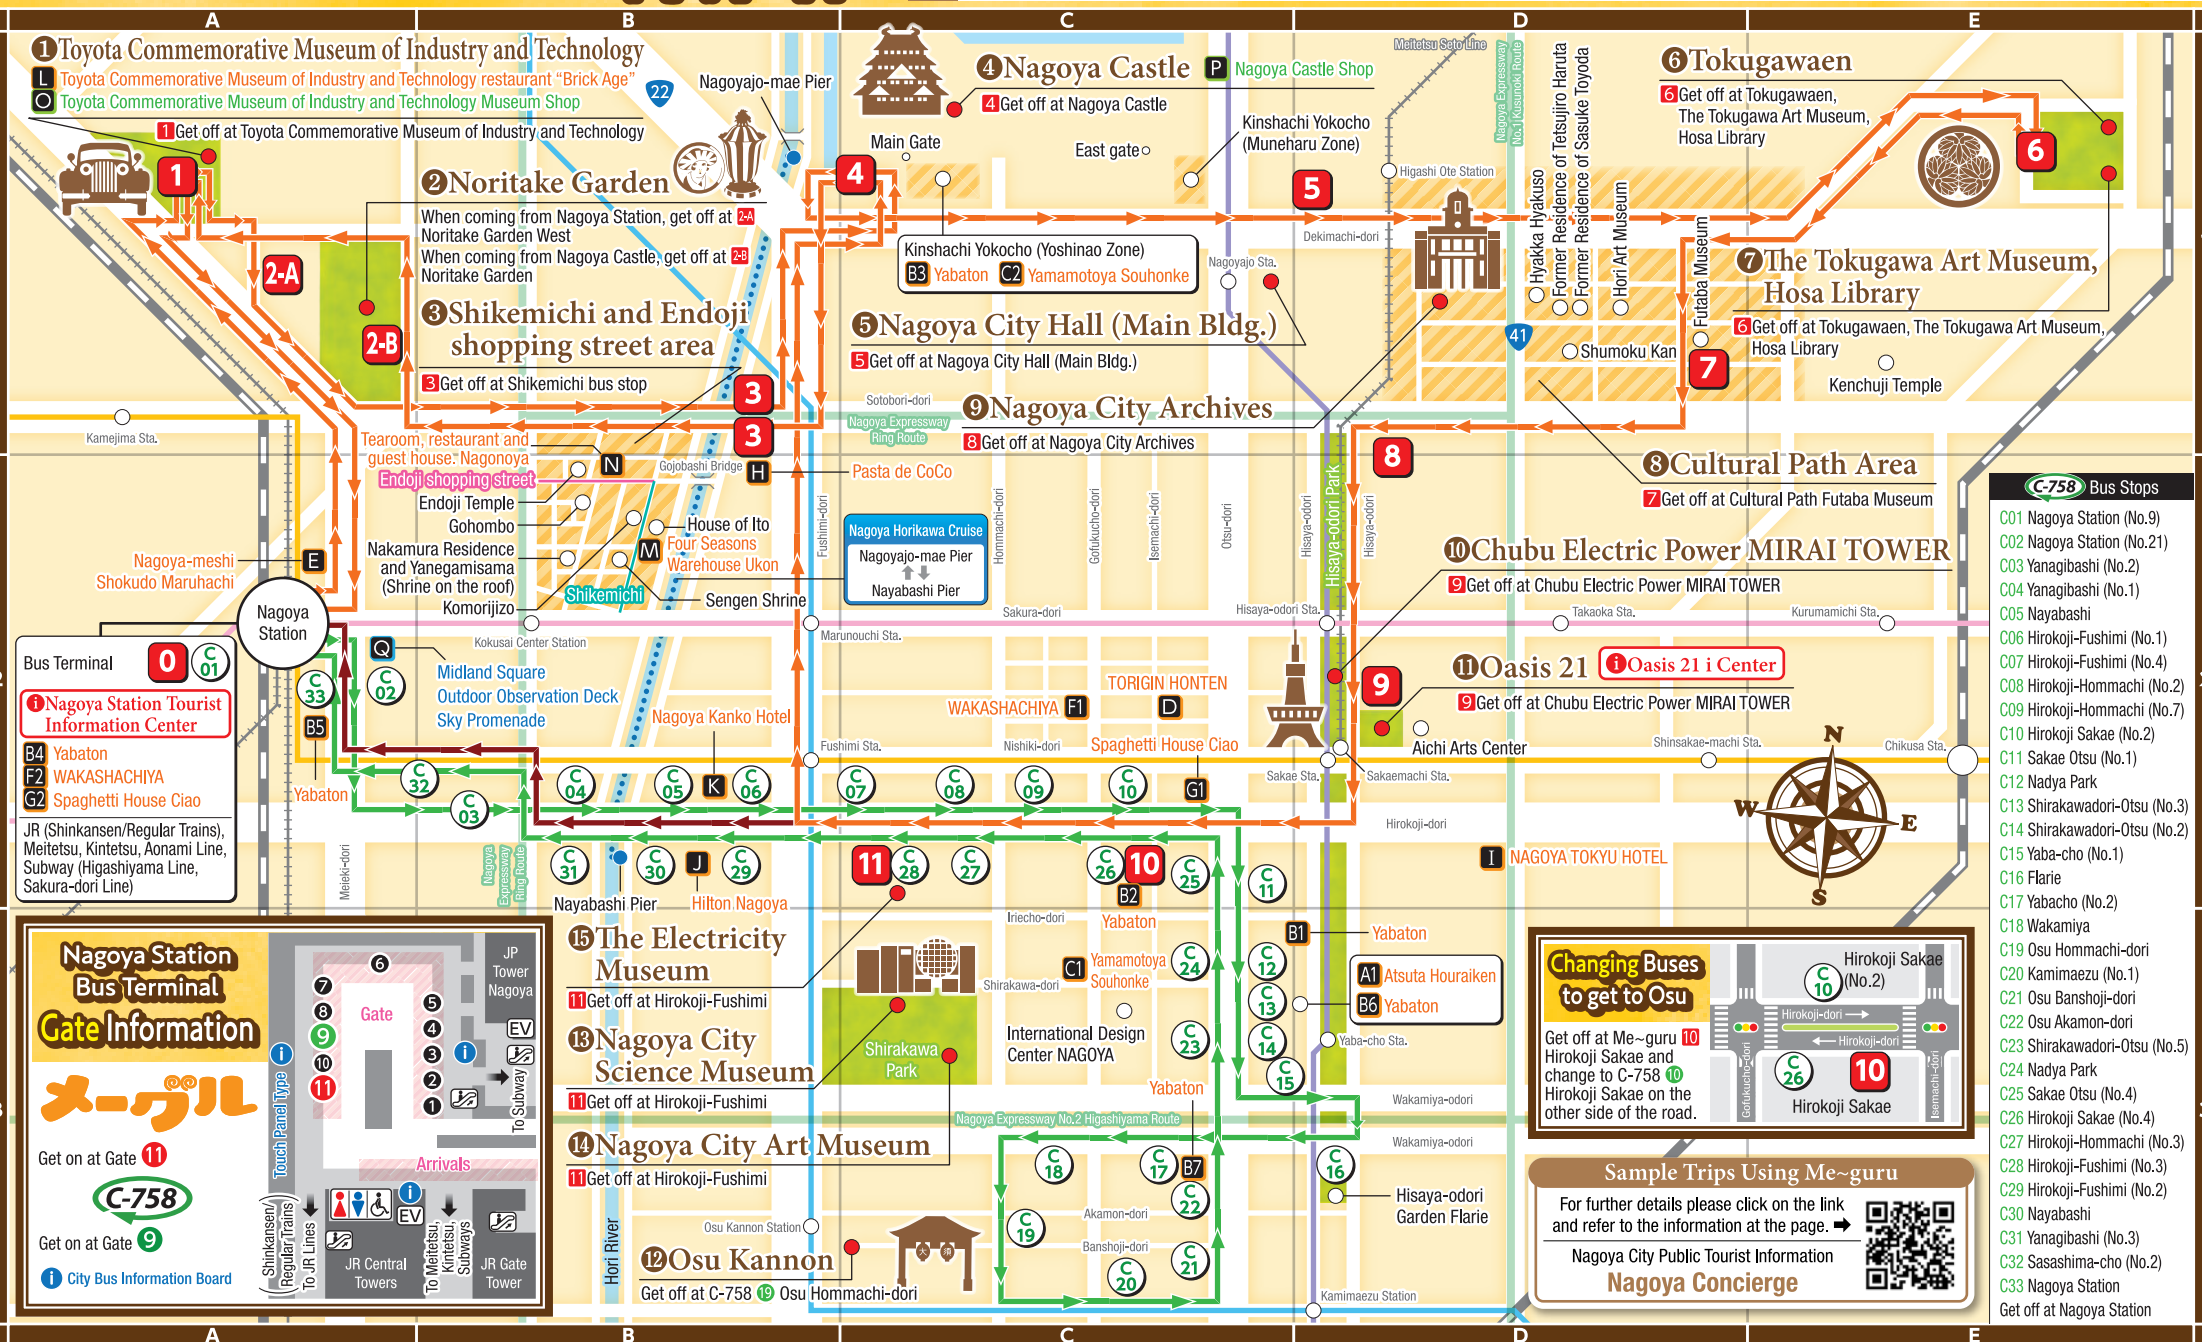

Service routes
Bus Stop

Short Route
The last bus that leaves at 17:00 from Nagoya Station goes straight from Hirokoji-Fushimi to Nagoya Station.

C-758
Route
Bus Stop

Subway
Higashiyama Line
Sakura-dori Line
Meijo Line
Tsurumai Line

Sightseeing Spot
Facilities provide discounts and special perks on the date of use of your Me-guru One-Day Pass.

Sightseeing Guide!

Discounts are offered at some facilities if you show a valid Me-guru One-Day Pass.
* In some cases details may vary so please ask at each facility.

1 Get off at Toyota Commemorative Museum of Industry and Technology MAP ▶ A-1

1 Toyota Commemorative Museum of Industry and Technology

A participatory museum established by the Toyota Group. The museum is housed in a red-brick factory from the Taisho Period (1912 to 1926) that remains at the birthplace of the Toyota Group. The museum features many textile machines and Toyota's very first passenger car. You could "see", "surprise", "learn" through the dynamic exhibitions and diverse demonstrations, and enjoy with the entire family.

● Adults: ¥500→¥400, Seniors aged 65 and above: ¥300→¥240, Jr. and Sr. high school students: ¥300→¥240, Elementary school students: ¥200→¥160
● 9:30-17:00 (Last entry at 16:30)
● Every Monday (or the following day if a national or substitute holiday falls on a Monday), year-end and New Year's holidays ☎052-551-6115

2-A When coming from Nagoya Station, get off at Noritake Garden West MAP ▶ A-1
2-B When coming from Nagoya Castle, get off at Noritake Garden

2 Noritake Garden

Set within this lush garden you will find various facilities. You can observe the pottery manufacturing process and experience painting on pottery at the Craft Center, see Old Noritake products at the museum. In other places you will find shops, and there is even a cafe and restaurant where serves food with Noritake tableware.

● Craft Center/
Adults: ¥500→¥450
● Craft Center and Museum/10:00-17:00 ☎ Business hours vary by facility.
● ☎052-561-7114 *For more info, visit the Noritake Garden website.

8 Get off at Nagoya City Archives South MAP ▶ D-1

9 Nagoya City Archives

Build in 1922, this former court building now houses the city archives and is open to the public. In addition to displays of judicial artifacts, such as detention cells, the stained glass in the central staircase is a must-see attraction. This neo-baroque style brick building is one of Japan's important cultural properties.

● Free ● 9:00-17:00 ☎052-953-0051 ● Every Monday (or the following weekday if a national holiday falls on a Monday), the 3rd Thursday of every month (or the 4th Thursday if a national holiday falls on the 3rd Thursday), year-end and New Year's holidays.

9 Get off at Chubu Electric Power MIRAI TOWER MAP ▶ D-2

10 Chubu Electric Power MIRAI TOWER

City's landmark tower built in 1954 as Japan's first consolidated radio tower. It is the first tower in Japan to be designated as an Important Cultural Property of Japan. In addition to the observation decks situated 90 m and 100 m above ground level, the 3rd floor has a cafe where visitors can relax and enjoy the view of the Sakae cityscape and a gift shop that sells original products. Floors 4 and 5 are now a hotel. One of the tower's attractions is the lighting up at night.

● Observation Deck/Adults (Sr. high school students and above): ¥1,300→¥1,200
Children (elementary and Jr. high school students): ¥800→¥700
● 10:00-21:00 (21:40 on Saturdays) (Last admission is 20 minutes before closing time.)
● None (However, closes about twice a year for maintenance.)
● ☎052-971-8546 *Times and fees vary by event.

4 Get off at Nagoya Castle MAP ▶ C-1

4 Nagoya Castle

Built by Tokugawa Ieyasu, this castle is a symbol of the city and hailed as "the castle makes Owari-nagoya what it is". Highlights of the castle are its castle tower crowned with golden shachihoko (killer whale) statues, the gorgeous Hommaru Palace and the elegant beauty of gardens throughout four seasons. While many buildings in the castle were burnt down during the Second World War, restoration work of the Palace was completed and opened to the public in 2018.

*The keep is currently closed to the public.

● Sr. high school students and above: ¥500→¥400, Jr. high school and younger students: Free
● 9:00-16:30 (Last admission to buildings such as Hommaru Palace is at 16:00.)
● Dec. 29th - Jan. 1st (It may vary depending on events, etc.)
● ☎052-231-1700

5 Nagoya City Hall (Main Bldg.)

Complete on September 6, 1933, it was designated as a nationally important cultural property in 2014. The exterior was designed to harmonizing in which Nagoya Castle.

7 Get off at Cultural Path Futaba Museum MAP ▶ D-1

7 Cultural Path Area

The historical townscape from the Edo to the Showa periods has been preserved in the area from Nagoya Castle to Tokugawaen. Some of them are open to the public.

10 Get off at Hirokoji Sakae Change to C-758 MAP ▶ C-3

12 Osu Kannon Temple

The special head temple of the Shingonshu Chisan sect and one of the Japan's three major sacred sites of the Kannon, Goddess of mercy. It also houses a statue of Hotel, one of Nagoya's seven deities of good fortune.

● Altar: 6:00-19:00
Office: 9:00-17:00

11 Get off at Hirokoji-Fushimi MAP ▶ C-2~C-3

13 Nagoya City Science Museum

Along with the exterior design that features spherical shape of the dome which is the world's largest planetarium, four large-scale exhibits, including an aurora vision in a -30° room and a nine-meter tall man-made tornado are must-see.

● Exhibition rooms and planetarium
Adults: ¥800→¥720
College and Sr. high school students: ¥500→¥450
Jr. high school and younger students: Free. (High school and university students must present a valid student ID.)

6 Get off at Tokugawaen, The Tokugawa Art Museum, Hosa Library MAP ▶ E-1

6 Tokugawaen

This Japanese garden features walkways winding around a central pond symbolizing the ocean. The waterfalls and streams use the differences in elevation to create an enjoyable, dynamic landscape. The park was once a residence of the Owari Tokugawa clan, and the vestiges of the old samurai manor can still be seen in the Kuromon gate at the entrance. Seasonal features of the park include peonies from the beginning to the end of April, irises from the end of May to the middle of June, and the autumn leaves at the end of November.

● Sr. high school students and above: ¥300→¥240 Jr. high school and younger students: Free
● 9:30-17:30 (Last admission is at 17:00.) ● Every Monday (If it is a holiday, the weekday just after the holiday), Dec. 29th - Jan. 1st ☎052-935-8988

7 The Tokugawa Art Museum, Nagoya City Hosa Library

7 The Tokugawa Art Museum, Nagoya City Hosa Library

The Tokugawa Art Museum has permanent exhibits of the tools used by the Owari Tokugawa feudal lords, with a focus on the belongings of Tokugawa Ieyasu. Over 10,000 items are housed in the museum, including nine National Treasures, such as the Tale of Genji picture scrolls, and 59 registered Important Cultural Properties, which are exhibited on a rotating basis. The Hosa Library is centered around the Owari Tokugawa clan's former collection of books, housing and displaying approximately 120,000 of Japan and China's old masterworks.

● Adults: ¥1,400→¥1,200, College and Sr. high school students: ¥700→¥600, Jr. high and elementary school students: ¥500→¥400 *Saturdays: Free for all elementary, Jr. and Sr. high school students *Fees will vary depending on the exhibition.
● 10:00-17:00 (Last entry at 16:30) ● Every Monday (or the following weekday if a national or substitute holiday falls on a Monday), mid-December to the New Year
● The Tokugawa Art Museum/052-935-6262 Nagoya City Hosa Library/052-935-2173

8 Cultural Path Area

8 Cultural Path Area

The historical townscape from the Edo to the Showa periods has been preserved in the area from Nagoya Castle to Tokugawaen. Some of them are open to the public.

11 Get off at Hirokoji-Fushimi MAP ▶ C-2~C-3

14 Nagoya City Art Museum

This modern building in Shirakawa Park was designed by the renowned architect Kisho Kurokawa and houses around 8,100 works including Ecole de Paris and Renacimiento Mexicano, contemporary art from both within Japan and overseas, and works by local artists.

● Regular Exhibition/Adults: ¥300→¥250
College and Sr. high school students: ¥200→¥150
Jr. high school and younger students: Free
● 9:30-17:00 (Last entry at 16:30), open until 20:00 on Fridays excluding national holidays (Last entry at 19:30)
● Monday (If it is a holiday, the weekday just after the holiday), year-end and New Year's holidays, exhibit replacement period (with some temporary holidays)
● ☎052-212-0001

15 The Electricity Museum

15 The Electricity Museum

A science museum where you can playfully study the mysteries of science, such as electricity, energy and the global environment, in a relaxed atmosphere.

● Free
● 9:30-17:00
● Monday (If it is a holiday, the weekday just after the holiday), 3rd Friday every month (excluding August), December 29 through January 3.
*Check the website for up-to-date information before visiting.
● ☎052-201-1026